Restriction on Indian Space and Missile Programme by Western Powers

1683. SHRIMATI KAMLA SINHA : Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state :

(a) whether the Western powers have placed restrictions on country's space and missile programmes while ignoring similar programmes of China and Pakistan;

(b) whether it is also a fact that in a bid to scuttle the country's missile programme, Western powers are trying to place the successfully test fired "Prithvi" under the missile control technology regime (MTCR); and

(c) if so, what are the details thereof, stating Government's reaction thereto ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI EDUARDO FALEIRO) : (a) At present 22 countries (Australia, Austria, Belgium, Canada, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Norway, New Zealand, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, U. K. and USA) are members of the Missile Technology Control Regime (MTCR). The objective of MTCR has been to restrict transfers of missile equipment and certain kinds of space related technology which is capable of being used for missile development. The MTCR is not an international treaty, but it is an ad hoc export control regime and its member states implement its (MTCR) provisions through their respective national legislations.

Under its legislation arising out of MTCR related obligations, the U.S. Government imposed sanctions on Dept. of Space and Indian Space Research Organization on May 11, 1992. Subsequently, in June 1992, the U.S. Government notified a list of countries with respect to specific projects to which U.S. companies cannot report without licences if they have reason to believe that the product would be used for missile design, development, production and use. India is mentioned in this list along with China and Pakistan.

(b) The MTCR is aimed at preventing proliferation of ballistic missiles having a range of more than 300 Kms. and a warhead of more than 500 kgs. weight. "PRITHVI" missile is being developed in two versions—150 Kms. range and a 250 Kms. range. Therefore, strictly speaking Prithvi should not attract MTCR related restrictions though, in the recent past, these restrictions have been imposed on the ground that Prithvi comes close to the MTCR threshold.

(c) Even at the time of the inception of the Integrated Guided Missile Development Programme, it was anticipated that certain restrictions would be imposed by the industrially advanced countries on this project. Therefore, a programme for indigenous development was initiated at the outset. This is being strengthened in view of the export restrictions by other countries. At the same time, where possible, the Government also pursues bilateral discussions with individual countries to explore whether some of these concerns can be addressed through mutually acceptable understandings.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY (DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT) (SHRIMATI KRISHNA SAHI) : (a) and (b) The Government of Arunachal Pradesh have submitted Transport Subsidy claims amounting to Rs. 3.31 crores and have requested for advance payment for disbursement to the eligible units.
